

School Assemblies - Key Stage 1-2

Our assemblies can be carried out in any primary school setting across England and Wales. They are 15 -20 minute presentations to a large cohort of students, sending broad messages that reflect the school ethos of equality, inclusion and respecting difference. They aim to engage learning around gender diversity, raise awareness of trans identities and increase understanding of what it means to include trans people in our schools.

About Gendered Intelligence

Gendered Intelligence consists of a team of skilled trainers, facilitators, youth workers and qualified teachers. Some of the team hold doctorates in the area of transgender studies and/or have a lived experience of being trans. We have a working and in-depth knowledge of the wider trans community and of the young trans community in particular. Gendered Intelligence is a registered Community Interest Company. The company is Limited by Guarantee under Companies House regulation, and is not for profit. For more information about us visit our website.

Gendered Intelligence provides a non-judgmental service that supports all educational settings to develop and improve their trans inclusion and gender diversity good practices.

Contact us to find out more:

E mail: education@genderedintelligence.co.uk

Telephone: 0207 832 5848

Website: genderedintelligence.co.uk

Office address: VAI, 200a Pentonville Road, London N1 9JP

Company number: 06617608

We always aim to work flexibly and to meet your needs in your particular setting. Please do contact us to discuss alternatives. All our services can be mixed and matched to suit your specific needs and circumstances, or bespoke as required.

School Assemblies Key Stage 1-2 is useful in one or more of the following circumstances:

- The school's ethos is committed to equality and inclusion, but would benefit from an increased understanding of gender diversity and what it means to include trans people
- The school wishes to prepare students for the opportunities, responsibilities and experience of later life and living in a diverse world
- The school would like to tackle and prevent Homophobic, Biphobic and Transphobic (HBT) or gender-based prejudice and bullying

At the end of the session students will show an increase in their ability to:

- Recognise and value diversity
- Respect difference and our responsibility to others
- Assertively challenge prejudice and discrimination
- Discuss relationships and feelings
- Understand gender as diverse and the impact of gender stereotyping

Duration: 15-20 minutes

Cost: £145 per hour (minimum charge is one hour) + travel

Numbers: Up to 300 students

See 'Gendered Intelligence Fees, Terms & Conditions'

You may also be interested in:

- Educational Workshops - Key Stage 1-2
- Mentoring for Young Trans People in Schools and Sixth form Colleges
- Training and Presentations for Staff Working in Education
- Professional Consultancy